JLL Supplemental Privacy Statement for California Consumers

JLL Supplemental Privacy Statement for California Consumers

Why?

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) gives California residents the right to know what personal information Jones Lang LaSalle (JLL), together with its subsidiaries and affiliates collects about them, including whether it is being sold or disclosed to third parties. JLL does not sell or disclose personal information to third parties without a business agreement. The CCPA also grants certain rights to California residents, including the right to delete their personal information (subject to certain exceptions) and the right to prevent JLL from selling their personal information. Companies are also prohibited from retaliating or discriminating against consumers for exercising their rights under the CCPA.

All companies need to collect and share consumers' personal information for everyday business purposes, marketing, and maintenance of the safety, security, and integrity of their websites and other assets, among other reasons. This Supplemental Statement for California Consumer provides the information required under the CCPA and applies to both JLL's online and offline activities. For more information about how we collect, use, and share information please view our Privacy Statement.

What?

Please view the chart below to learn about the categories of personal information we have collected about you in the preceding 12 months, along with the categories of sources from which the personal information was collected, the purpose for collecting the personal information, and the categories of third parties with whom we share the personal information for a business or commercial purpose.

In addition to the purposes for collecting and sharing personal information described below, JLL collects and discloses any and all personal information (regardless of your relationship or interaction with us) as necessary or appropriate to: comply with laws and regulations; monitor, investigate, and enforce compliance with and potential breaches of JLL policies and procedures and legal and regulatory requirements; comply with civil, criminal, judicial, or regulatory inquiries, investigations, subpoenas, or summons; and exercise or defend the legal rights of JLL and its employees, affiliates, customers, contractors, and agents.

Personal information

In this Supplemental Statement, "personal information" (or "PI") means any information that identifies, relates to, describes, or is capable of being associated with you or your household, whether directly or indirectly.

Your rights

If you are a California resident, you have the following rights under the CCPA with respect to your personal information:

- Right to Notice. Before or at the time we collect personal information from you, you have the right to receive notice of the personal information to be collected and the purposes for which we use it. This Supplemental Statement is intended to satisfy this requirement.

You also have the right to request that we disclose to you the categories of personal information we have collected about you in the preceding 12 months, along with the categories of sources from which the personal information was collected, the purpose for collecting or selling the personal information, the categories of third parties with whom we shared the personal information, and the categories of third parties with whom we sold the personal information.

- Right of Access. You have the right to request that we disclose or provide you with access to the specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you in the preceding 12 months.
- Right to Deletion. You have the right to request that we delete the personal information we collect from you. However, in certain situations we are not required to delete your personal information, such as when the information is necessary in order to complete the transaction for which the personal information was collected, to provide a good or service requested by you, to comply with a legal obligation, to engage in research, to secure our websites or other online services, or to otherwise use your personal information internally in a lawful manner that is compatible with the context in which you provided the information.

- Right to Opt-Out of the Sale of Personal Information. JLL does not sell your personal information as the term is defined based on our understanding of the CCPA. We have not sold any personal information to third parties for business or commercial purposes in the 12 months prior to the effective date of this Supplemental Privacy Statement. We do share personal information with third parties for business and commercial purposes including without limitation advertising and marketing based on Users online activities over time and across different sites, services and devices.
- Right Not to Be Subject to Discrimination. You have the right to be free from discrimination or retaliation for exercising any of your rights under the CCPA as described above.

You can exercise your rights by calling toll-free 833-906-2120 or by emailing privacy-am@am.jll.com

Verification

We value the security and confidentiality of your personal information. Therefore, if you exercise your right to notice, right of access, or right to deletion, we must first verify your identify to make sure that you are the person about whom we have collected personal information. We verify every request carefully.

- Along with your request, we ask that you provide us with a scanned copy of your government-issued ID, driver's license or utility bill (from the last 3 months); for verification purposes.
- When all of your household members jointly submit a request, we ask that each of you provide us with a scanned copy of your government-issued ID, driver's license or utility bill (from the last 3 months); for verification purposes.

You may also authorize someone else to submit these requests on your behalf. To do so, you may designate directly with us another person who may act on your behalf by such as providing us with a notarized copy of power of attorney, or ask the authorized agent (lawyer) to provide us with a copy of your written permission and a scanned copy of their own government-issued ID.
